

The K-LOVE station which uses a translator service is very important to this community where I live and listen to that station. Changes in the FCC rules to jeprodize the translator stations is highly objectionable. K-LOVE provides one of the best family environments for listening in San Antonio. Eliminating this station would be tragic to our wholesome lifestyle.